- (2) The United States alleges that his presence in this country is illegal. There is an immigration detainer pending against him. The issue of detention in this case is therefore essentially moot, as the defendant would be released to immigration custody if not detained in this case.
  - (3) Defendant and his counsel offer no opposition to the entry of an order of detention.
- (4) Upon advice of counsel, defendant declined to be interviewed by Pretrial Services.

  Therefore, there is limited information available about him.
- (5) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.
